PARENT OFFERINGS

Stay Tuned for These Upcoming Parent Offerings:

FALL COFFEE & CONVERSATION

- Join us at Molly's Courtyard Cafe on the first* Tuesday of each month (starting September 15th,* October 6, and November 3) for warm beverages and thoughtful dialogue around parenting and Waldorf education. Topics will support the everyday joys and challenges of raising humans with heart and intention.

FALL BOOK STUDY

- Join us as we read The Digital Delusion: How Classroom Technology Harms Our Kids' Learning and How to Help Them Thrive Again, by Jared Cooney Horvath. More than a discussion about schools, this book invites us to thoughtfully examine how technology shapes our children's lives, and our own, and offers practical ways to foster deeper connection, attention, and well-being both at school and at home.

MONTHLY CRAFTING & KNITTING MORNINGS WITH TEA

- A cozy space to gather, sip tea, and create after drop-off. Stay tuned to the Bulletin for upcoming classes with dates and times.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION EVENTS (SAVE THE DATES!)

- Sunday, Sept. 20: "Eliciting Community Values and Circle Process" with Chris Fitz, Advoz
- Sunday, October 18: Eurythmy Workshop

Sunday, January 31: "Stages of Facilitative Parenting - Governor, Gardener, Guide" with Chris Fitz, Advoz

Advoz is a community-based mediation and restorative justice resource in Lancaster. They support affordable programs and services for conflict resolution.
